ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROVISIONS

As a result of anti-money laundering regulations, documentation will be required for subscription into the company. This will be used for compliance with these regulation and to verify the identity of investors and will remain confidential. Please note that the Manager reserves the right to request further documentation or information. Failure to provide such documentation or information may result in rejection of the subscription and/or the withholding of redemption proceeds.

Documentation may not be required if the subscriber or the beneficial owner(s) of the investment:

- (a) have an existing investment in the Company and have already provided documentation, or
- (b) have already provided evidence of identity to the Manager.

In the event of none of the above applying to a subscriber, the subscriber will have to provide proof of identity to the Manager. Such proof of identity may include:

- (a) In the case of private individuals (including beneficiaries of a trust)
 - 1. a "certified" extract from a valid passport (ie. A copy of the front cover and pages showing photograph, personal details and signature, date, place of issue and serial number
- (b) In the case of a corporate investor
 - 1. a "certified" copy of Articles of Association or Statutes or Published Accounts or Certificate of Incorporation or Trade Register Entry or Certificate of Trade or Partnership Agreement, and
 - 2. names and addresses of all Directors or Partners and specimen signatures

* NOTE: The certified documents must be "certified" by a professional person such as a notary.
