ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROVISIONS

As a result of anti-money laundering regulations, documentation is required for subscription to shares in the Company. This will be used for compliance with these regulations and to verify the identity of investors and will remain confidential. Failure to provide such documentation or information may result in rejection of the subscription and/or the withholding of redemption proceeds.

If you are a new investor and have not yet submitted to the Company your Customer Information Sheet (CIS) or if any of your personal data has changed since you did so, please complete, sign and return your CIS form available for download at www.ftmii-investments.com/cis.pdf.

N.B. Passport, proof of address and company certificate should be "certified" by a Notary Public, Commissioner for Oaths, Justice of the Peace, Consular Officer, Lawyer in current practice or Chartered Accountant.
